SUMMER PROGRAMS 2021

Key Biscayne Community Center camps will be following the CDC guidelines and suggested safety and health protocols to keep everyone safe this summer. Safety and providing a low-risk environment is our number-one priority. The availability of camps is subject to change. All children must wear a facial covering for the duration of the program, except when eating or drinking.

KBCC SUMMER CAMP

It's that time of year again! There's a new adventure every week at the KBCC Summer Camp. Enjoy your favorite camp activities, such as games, indoor playground, arts and crafts, swimming, computer lab, movies, and much more. While there will be no field trips this summer, staff will focus on bringing experiences into the KBCC and as much outdoor time as the weather allows! Campers will receive 1 shirt at registration. Additional shirts are available for $7.

Registration is available per week and pro-rating is not allowed. Space is limited and registration will be capped once capacity is reached. Children will be kept in cohorted groups. No early drop off or late pick up. Children must bring a packed lunch from home. For questions or more information, contact David Plotkin at dplotkin@keybiscayne.fl.gov or 305-365-8900.
